

Promoting British Values

The DfE have reinforced the need "to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs." At Moulton Chapel Primary School these are values that are reinforced regularly in the following ways:

British Values Statement

Moulton Chapel Primary School is committed to serving its community and surrounding areas. We recognise the multi-faith nature of the United Kingdom and understand the crucial role our school plays in promoting these values.

We encourage admission from all those entitled to education under British law regardless of faith, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, political or financial status.

This statement outlines the key British Values we actively promote beyond our work in assemblies.
